Leslie Craig Henderzahs concentrates her practice on civil litigation, including family law, personal injury and domestic relations. She practices before the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana and the Courts of general jurisdiction in Hamilton County and other counties throughout the State of Indiana. Additionally, she is admitted to practice before the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals. She enjoys the distinction of specialist in family law as certified by the Family Law Certification Board.

Mrs. Henderzahs was born in Louisville, Kentucky, and grew up in New Albany, Indiana, graduating from New Albany High School in 1983. She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice from Indiana University in 1986. She graduated from the Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis in 1990 after earning her Juris Doctorate. Following graduation from law school, Mrs. Henderzahs served as Law Clerk to the Honorable J. Patrick Endsley, Magistrate-Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana.

Mrs. Henderzahs joined the firm in 1992, and, in 1995, became the first female partner. She serves as a delegate to the Indiana State Bar Association and Chair of the Women in Law Committee 2008-2009. She is a 1995 graduate of the Hamilton County Leadership Academy. Mrs. Henderzahs serves the Indiana Bar Foundation nominating committee. She also serves the Indiana State Bar Association on the following committees: Federal Judiciary, Task Force for Women in the Law, Litigation Section, Family and Juvenile Law. Additionally, she sits on the Executive Committee of the Hamilton County Bar Association and is a member of the American Bar Association; the Indiana Trial Lawyers Association and the Association of Trial Lawyers of America. Mrs. Henderzahs serves as the Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis Law Firm Campaign Committee. Additionally, she has authored and given invited lectures and presentations on behalf of Indiana Continuing Legal Education Forum, Indianapolis Bar Association, and Heartland Pro Bono Services.

Mrs. Henderzahs enjoys competitive swimming at the Masters level and time spent with her husband, Allen and children, Shelby, Caroline and Madelyn.
